At Bank-Smart we are committed to providing you with a quality service and aim to deal with your claim as quickly and as efficiently as possible.

If for any reason you are not entirely satisfied with any aspect of our service, we want you to let us know as soon as possible. We will make the relevant enquires to put matters right and where applicable we will update our processes to prevent the problem from occurring again.

Raising your concerns with us

Step 1 - Client Support

- a) As an online company, we work hard to provide you with helpful client support online and by post, which enables us to respond quickly and efficiently to your concerns, no matter how complex your situation. If you have any queries regarding your claims, or our service, please firstly contact our support team. They can be contacted at:

- b) We aim to respond to every query within 48 hours of receipt and we are confident that the majority of your queries can be resolved at this stage.

Step 2 - Register a complaint

- a) In the event that you are not entirely satisfied with our Support Team’s response, you will be asked if you wish to register a formal complaint.

To register a complaint, you must contact our Complaints Team via email, post or telephone:

--	----	--	----	---------------

- b) Your complaint will be acknowledged in writing within 5 working days of receipt by a member of our Complaints Handling Team and we will ensure that your complaint is dealt with by a member of the team that has not been directly involved in the matter you are complaining about. Every member of our Complaints Handling Team has the authority to investigate and settle your complaint.

- c) A member of our Complaints Handling Team will investigate the matter you have raised and you will be issued with a final response which adequately addresses your complaint within 4 weeks of receipt. If we are unable to provide you with a full response in this time, we will let you know the reasons for the delay and provide you with a final response within 8 weeks of receipt of the original complaint. In either case we will inform you of your rights to refer the matter to the Legal Ombudsman if you are dissatisfied.
- d) Where we decide that redress is appropriate, we will provide you with fair compensation for any acts or omissions for which we are responsible and will comply with any offer of redress which you accept. Appropriate redress will not always involve financial redress.

Step 3 - Referral to the Legal Ombudsman

- a) Obviously, we always want to resolve any concerns you raise with us internally. However, where you are not satisfied with our final response, or if eight weeks have passed since you first submitted your complaint, you have the right to refer the complaint to the Legal Ombudsman.

The Legal Ombudsman can investigate complaints up to six years from the date of the problem happening or within three years of when you found out about the problem. If you wish to refer your complaint to the Legal Ombudsman this should be done within six months of the date of our final response to your complaint.
